Interior Region EMS Council HIRING Executive Director in Fairbanks

$84,960-$91,483 annually (DOE)

We are seeking a visionary and mission-driven Executive Director to lead our organization into its next chapter. Reporting to the Board of Directors, the Executive Director serves as the Chief Executive Officer and provides both strategic and operational leadership. You'll oversee a dedicated staff, manage a diverse portfolio of grants and programs, and represent the region at the state and national level. This role is central to advancing emergency response systems in Interior Alaska through innovation, collaboration, and advocacy.

Key responsibilities:

- Lead all aspects of organizational operations, staff supervision, and program implementation
- Oversee fiscal management, budgeting, and compliance with nonprofit and grant requirements
- Represent IREMSC to stakeholders, funders, and state-level coalitions
- Partner with rural and tribal communities to support equitable EMS delivery
- Support the Board of Directors and ensure alignment with strategic goals
