

Seeking Community Feedback on Independent Living

The Statewide Independent Living Council of Alaska is holding our Fall Board Meeting in Bethel and are seeking Community Feedback on barriers to Independent Living.

Who we Need

Alaskans with all forms of disability, caregivers, advocates, providers, and stakeholders. Disabilities are as diverse as Alaskans themselves, and can include (but not limited to) vision, hearing, and mobility impairments, mental and behavioral health, cognitive and developmental disorders, Traumatic Brain Injury, FASD and Substance Abuse disorders.

Topics

Where:

Long House Hotel Conference Room
751 3rd Avenue, Bethel

This session is to listen to the needs and feedback of the community on the barriers they face to independent living. There is no set agenda or topic list. Needs regarding accessible housing, transportation, emergency preparedness and assistive technology are just a few examples.
